

Quebec Whales

Where to go? What to see?

A fun activity to do in Quebec is whale watching. Quebec is very popular for whale watching because many different whales live in the Saint Lawrence River. In fact, there are 13 different species of whales swimming around Quebec. You can see:

Beluga whales

Blue Whales

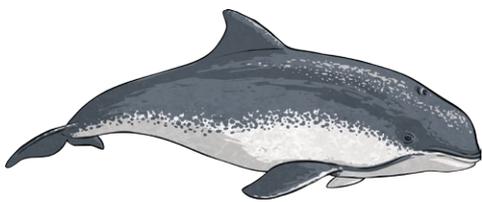

Humpback whales

Killer whales

The best time to go whale watching is between July and September. One of the most popular places to go whale watching is Tadoussac, Quebec. The most common whales are blue whales and humpback whales. Did you know that blue whales are the largest animals on the planet? They are very long, and they are so heavy that just their tongues weigh as much as an elephant!

Fun Facts

- Another place in Canada to watch whales is Vancouver.
- Blue whales eat small sea creatures called krill.
- Some whales can live for 200 years!

Quebec Whales Questions

1. Which whales are the most common?

2. How many species of whale live around Quebec?

3. Which months are the best to go whale watching? Circle the correct answer.

July

August

September

All of the above

4. Where else in Canada can you go whale watching?

5. Would you like to go whale watching? Why? Why not?

6. Answer the following questions with true or false:

a. The best time to go what watching is in autumn. _____

b. There are more than 10 species of whales swimming around in the waters of Quebec. _____

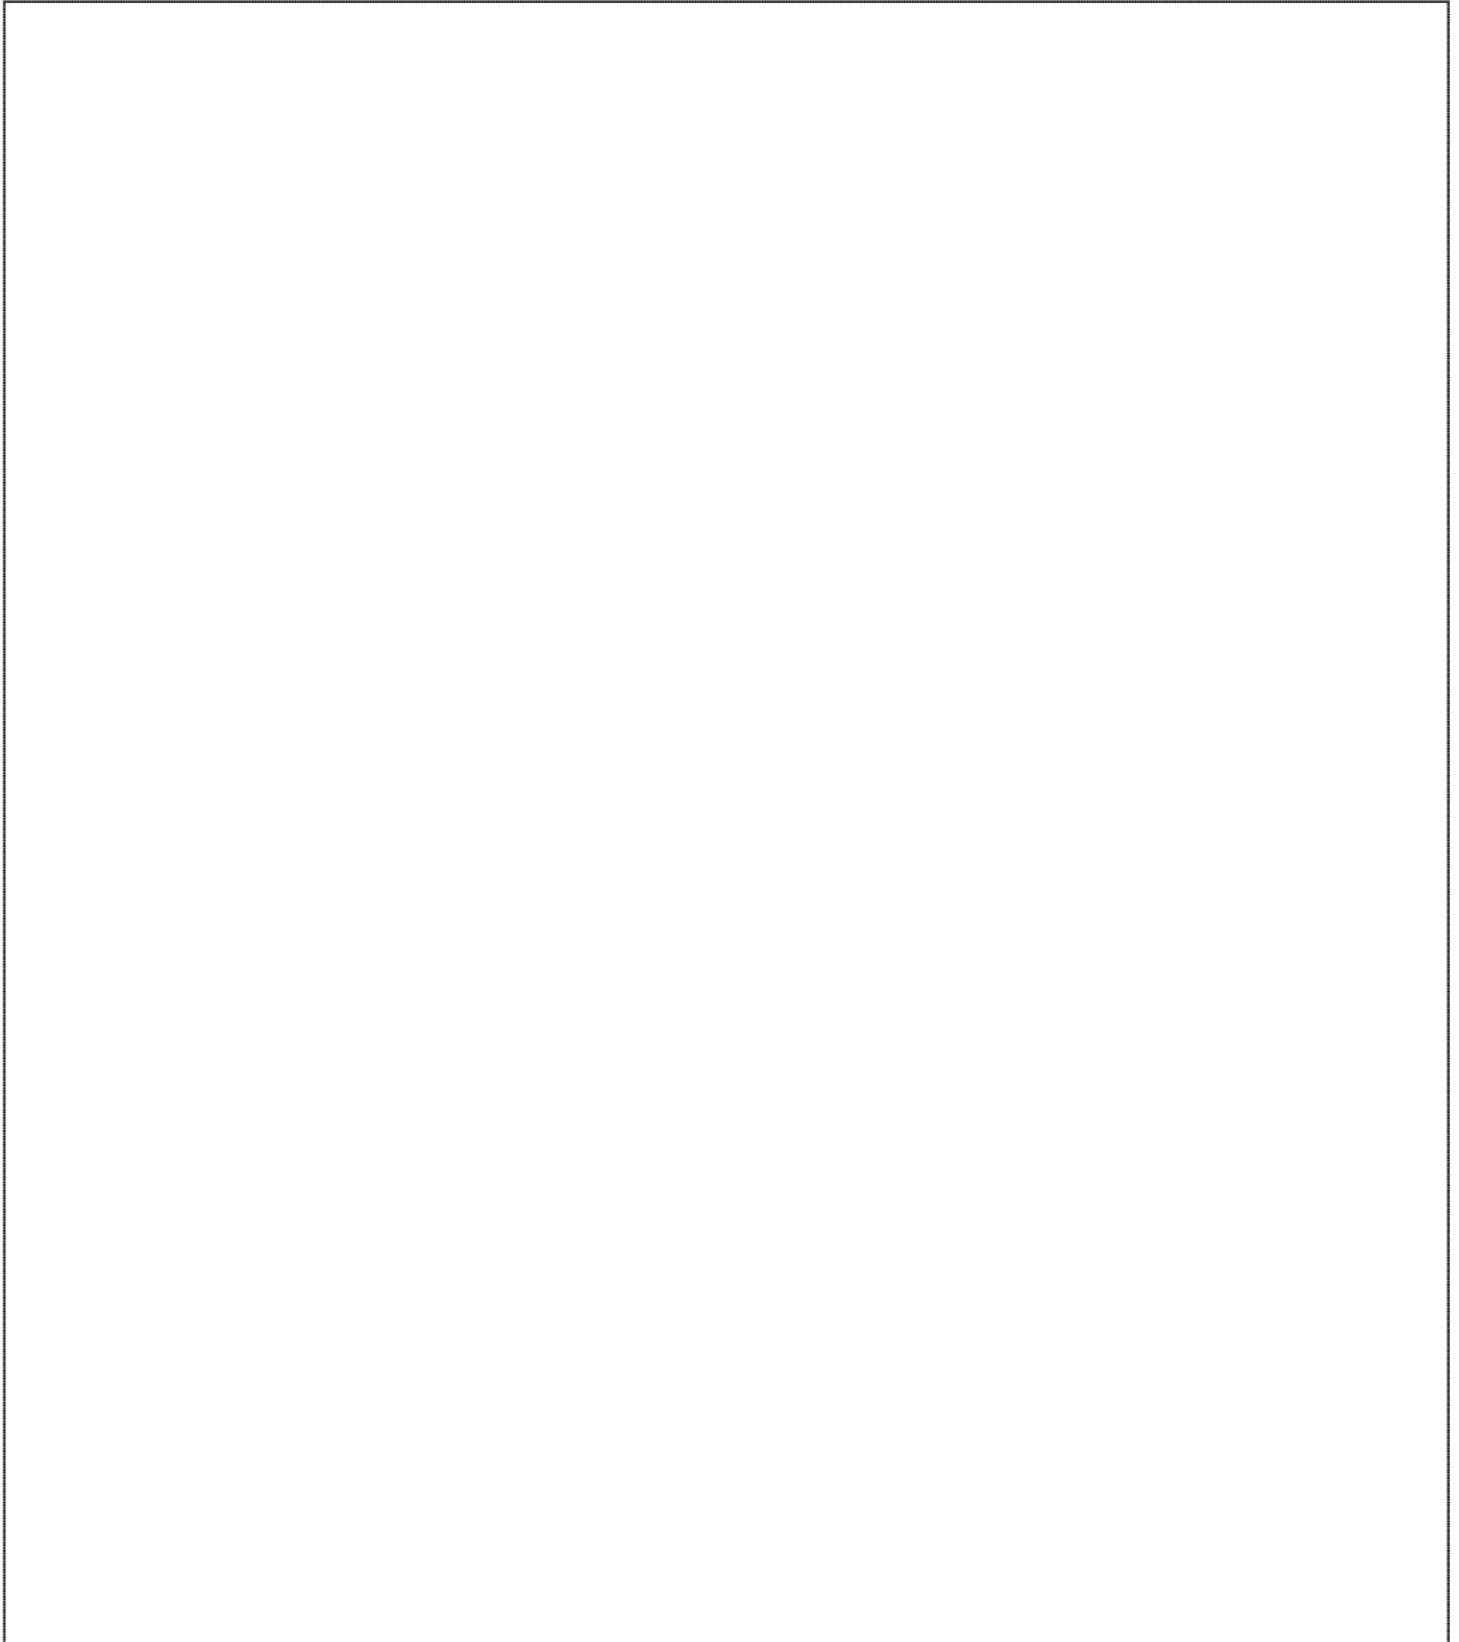

c. Quebec is the best place in Canada to go whale watching. _____

7. Find a synonym for the following words:

Word	Synonym
fun popular largest small creatures

Quebec Whales Questions

8. Draw a picture of a blue whale. You might want to look at some images in non-fiction books or on the Internet.

Answers

1. Which whales are the most common?

Blue whales and humpback whales are the most common.

2. How many species of whale live around Quebec?

13 different species of whale live around Quebec.

3. Which months are the best to go whale watching? Circle the correct answer.

All of the above

4. Where else in Canada can you go whale watching?

You can also go whale watching in Vancouver.

5. Would you like to go whale watching? Why? Why not?

Answers may vary.

6. Answer the following questions with true or false:

a. The best time to go whale watching is in autumn. False

b. There are more than 10 species of whales swimming around in the waters of Quebec. True

c. Quebec is the best place in Canada to go whale watching. False

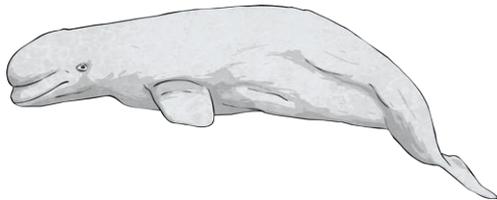

7. Find a synonym for the following words:

Answers may vary.

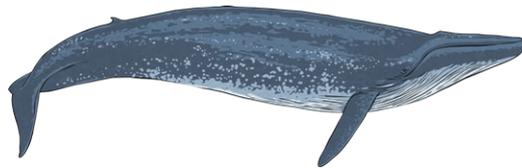

Quebec Whales

Where to go? What to see?

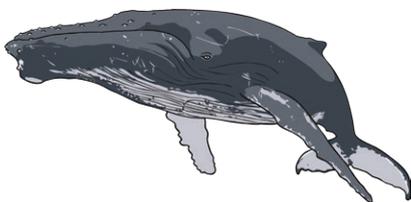

One of the most popular activities to do in Quebec is whale watching. Quebec is very popular for whale watching because of the different kinds of whales that can be found in the Saint Lawrence River; you can even see dolphins and other sea creatures! In fact, there are 13 types of whale swimming around in the waters of Quebec. You can see:

Beluga whales

Blue Whales

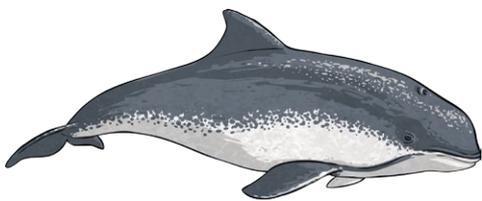

Humpback whales

Killer whales

The best time to go whale watching is between July and September because that is when you have the best chance of seeing a lot of whales up close. One of the most popular places to go whale watching is Tadoussac, Quebec. The most common whales are blue whales and humpback whales. Did you know that blue whales are the largest animals on the planet? They can measure up to 100 feet long, and they are so heavy that their tongues weigh as much as an elephant!

Fun Facts

- Another place in Canada to watch whales is Vancouver.
- Blue whales eat small sea creatures called krill.
- Some whales can live for 200 years!

Quebec Whales Questions

1. Which whales are the most common?

2. How many species of whale live around Quebec?

3. Which months are the best to go whale watching? Circle the correct answer.

July

August

September

All of the above

4. Where else in Canada can you go whale watching?

5. Would you like to go whale watching? Why? Why not?

6. Is there anything that surprises you about whales? If so, what?

7. Answer the following questions with true or false:

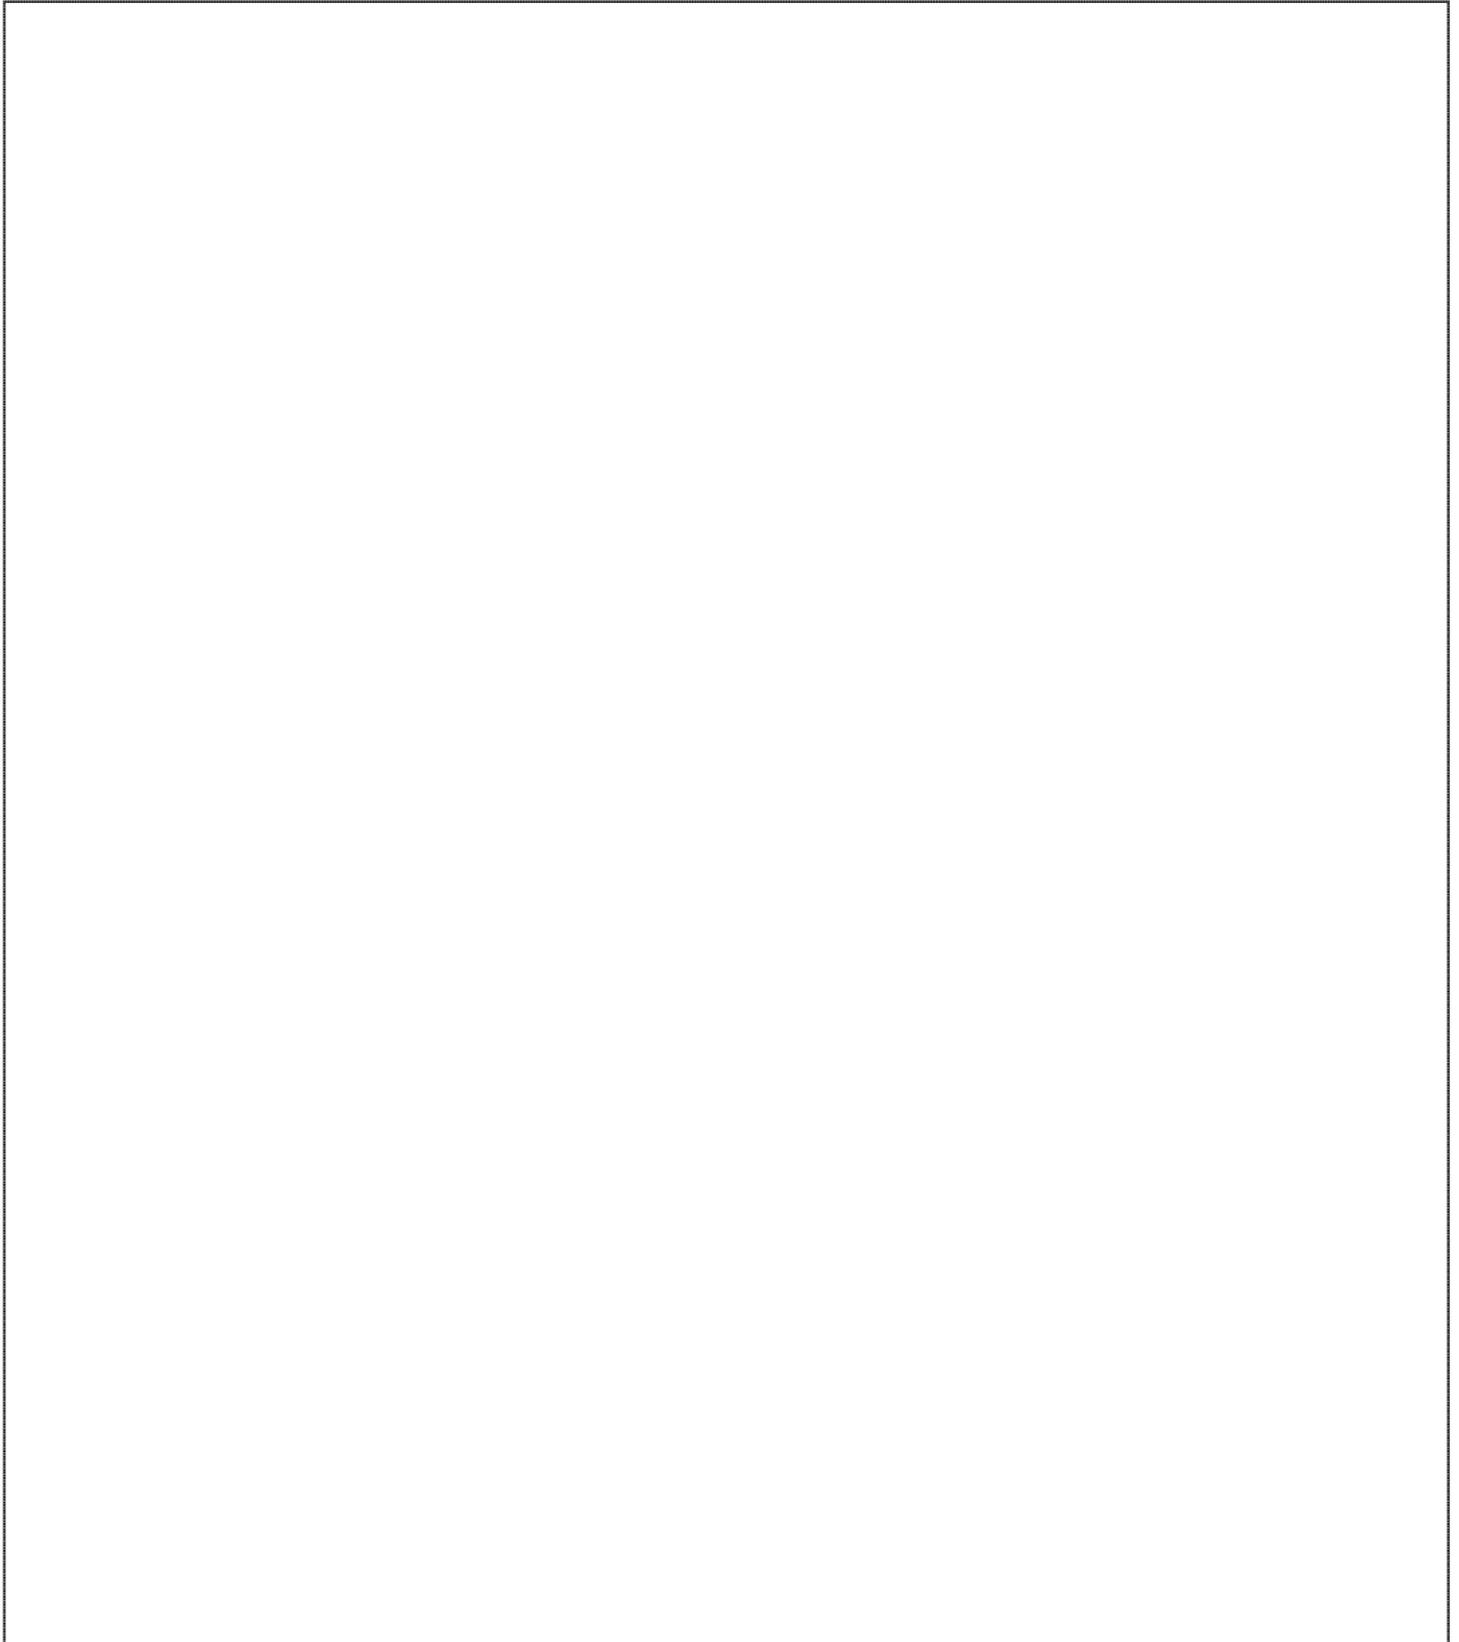

- a. Dolphins are a type of whale. _____
- b. The best time to go what watching is in autumn. _____
- c. There are more than 10 species of whales swimming around in the waters of Quebec _____
- d. Whales live for at least 200 years. _____

8. Find one synonym and one antonym for the following words:

Word	Synonym	Antonym
fun
popular largest small creatures

Quebec Whales Questions

9. Draw a picture of a blue whale. You might want to look at some images in non-fiction books or on the Internet.

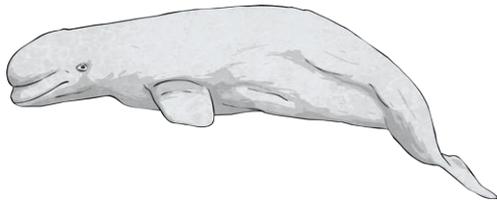

Answers

1. Which whales are the most common?
Blue whales and humpback whales are the most common.
2. How many species of whale live around Quebec?
13 different species of whale live around Quebec.
3. Which months are the best to go whale watching? Circle the correct answer.
All of the above
4. Where else in Canada can you go whale watching?
You can also go whale watching in Vancouver.
5. Would you like to go whale watching? Why? Why not?
Answers may vary.
6. Is there anything that surprises you about whales? If so, what?
Answers may vary.
7. Answer the following questions with true or false:
 - a. Dolphins are a type of whale. False
 - b. The best time to go whale watching is in autumn. False
 - c. There are more than 10 species of whales swimming around in the waters of Quebec True
 - d. Whales live for at least 200 years. False
8. Find a synonym for the following words:
Answers may vary.

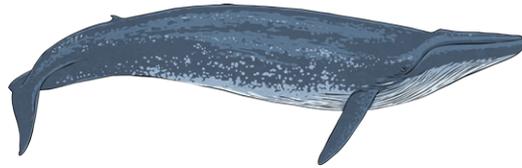

Quebec Whales

Where to go? What to see?

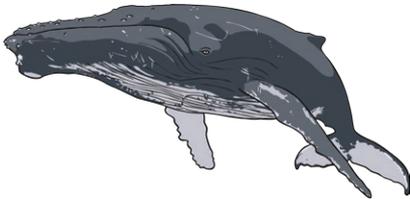

One of the most sought-after activities to do in Quebec is whale watching. Quebec is renowned for whale watching because of the many diverse species that can be found swimming deep into the Saint Lawrence River. In fact, there are 13 different species of whale swimming around in the waters surrounding the province of Quebec. For example, you can see:

Beluga whales

Blue Whales

Humpback whales

Killer whales

The best time to go whale watching is between the months of July and September because that is when there is a greater opportunity for getting close to the whales. One of the most notorious places to go whale watching is Tadoussac, Quebec. The most common whales are blue whales and humpback whales. Did you know that blue whales are the largest animals on the planet? They can measure up to 100 feet long and they are so heavy that just their tongues weigh as much as an elephant!

Fun Facts

- Another place in Canada to watch whales is Vancouver.
- Blue whales eat small sea creatures called krill.
- Some whales can live for 200 years!

Quebec Whales Questions

1. Which whales are the most common?

2. How many species of whale live around Quebec?

3. Which months are the best to go whale watching? Circle the correct answer.

July

August

September

All of the above

4. Where else in Canada can you go whale watching?

5. Would you like to go whale watching? Why? Why not?

6. Describe the emotions you might feel if you went whale watching.

7. If you could only see one whale, which species would you choose? Why?

8. Is there anything that surprises you about whales? If so, what?

9. Answer the following questions with true or false:

- The best time to go whale watching is in autumn. _____
- There are more than 10 species of whales swimming around in the waters of Quebec. _____
- Whales live for at least 200 years. _____

Quebec Whales Questions

10. Find two synonyms and two antonyms for the following words:

Word	Synonym	Antonym
fun
popular largest small creatures

Answers

1. Which whales are the most common?
Blue whales and humpback whales are the most common.
2. How many species of whale live around Quebec?
13 different species of whale live around Quebec.
3. Which months are the best to go whale watching? Circle the correct answer.
All of the above
4. Where else in Canada can you go whale watching?
You can also go whale watching in Vancouver.
5. Would you like to go whale watching? Why? Why not?
Answers may vary.
6. Describe the emotions you might feel if you went whale watching?
Answers may vary.
7. If you could only see one whale, which species would you choose? Why?
Answers may vary.
8. Is there anything that surprises you about whales? If so, what?
Answers may vary.
9. Answer the following questions with true or false:
 - a. The best time to go what watching is in autumn. _____ False _____
 - b. There are more than 10 species of whales swimming around in the waters of Quebec. _____ True _____
 - c. Whales live for at least 200 years. _____ False _____
10. Find a synonym for the following words:
Answers may vary.