

An Introduction to

Traditional Tales

Lesson Objective:

- To understand what 'traditional' means and the main features of traditional tales.

Traditional Tales

Traditional tales are stories that have been told and retold for many years. Often they are passed down through generations. Therefore, they become a story that many people know. There are often lots of different versions of the same story.

Traditional tales are also known as fairy stories or fairy tales.

Can you name some story titles that are traditional tales?

Can you name any characters from a traditional tale?

Traditional tales often begin with:

Once upon a time...

A long, long time ago...

In a land far, far away...

In a faraway kingdom...

One sunny day...

Did you ever hear the story of...

Early one morning...

Common themes in traditional tales include...

Magic

Love

Talking animals

Good vs bad

A happy ending: "And they all lived happily ever after."

Power of 3

A setting is where the story takes place.
