Let's practise Sam's Sounds and Tricky Words!

Kit's Alphabet

Kit has written the alphabet but Ben has walked all over his work! Can you work out which letters are hidden behind the muddy paw prints?

Children can complete this activity on a whiteboard or by telling a partner their idea. Click each paw print to see the missing letter and hear the letter name.

Kit's Alphabet

Kit has writing the alphabet but Ben has walked all over his work! Can you work out which letters are hidden behind the muddy paw prints?

The trip to the boating lake had been planned for ages. Kit and Sam were very excited. They put on their life jackets and jumped into the boat.

“This isn’t easy!” puffed Kit, as they went round in circles.

“Let me show you,” said Dad, taking hold of the oars.

“Oh... I see now,” said Kit. Soon he and Sam had the boat heading out across the lake. “Oa, oa, oa, our boat, gently round the lake!” sang Kit.

o and a are partners. They say oa.

oa

Action

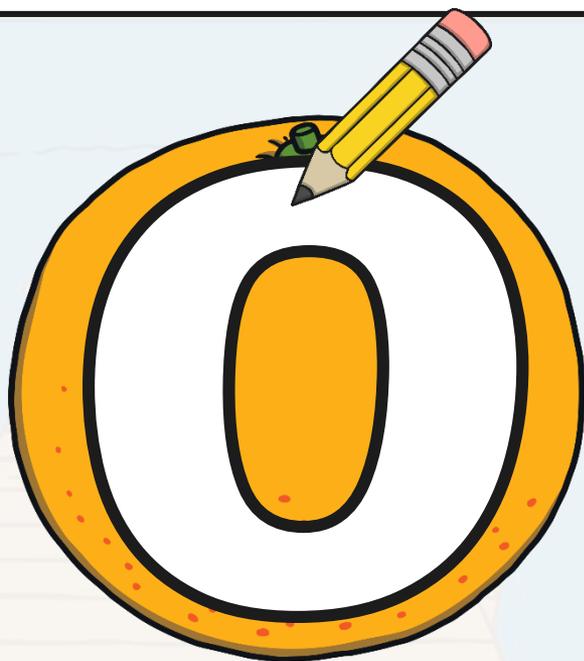

Pretend to row your boat.

Say 'oa, oa, oa'.

Write the Letters

Around the orange.
Around the apple, up the stalk and down the leaf.

Play

Let's Sing!

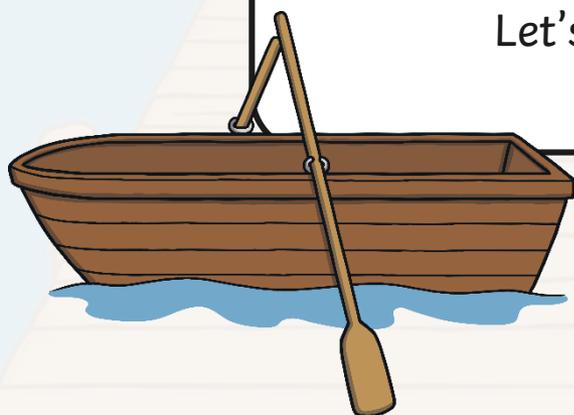

(To the tune of 'Hickory Dickory Dock')

Put on your shoes and your coat,
We're going to paddle our boat,

oa - oa - oa - oa

Now, here we go!

Let's hope that it stays afloat!

The wind started to blow a bit harder. “Ooh,” said Sam, “this should help the boat to go more quickly!” “I’m afraid not,” said Mum.

Caption Time

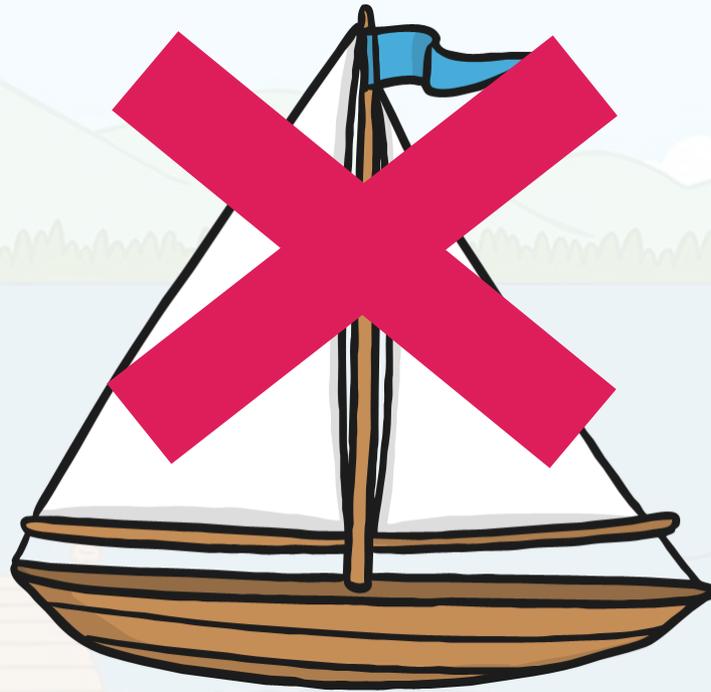

Why won't the wind help them to go any quicker? Look at the picture and write a caption to match.

“You know what else we don’t have on this boat?” said Dad. “Food! I’m hungry! Get paddling, kids!”
“I think I’ve earned my sandwich,” puffed Kit.

Today, we have learnt...
