Introducing igh

Medieval Day

Let's practise Sam's Sounds and Tricky Words!

This week, we are learning to spell the tricky words no, go and I.

There was a Medieval Day event on the village green so the family decided to go. People would be dressed up in clothes from the olden days.

Kit and Sam looked at all the stalls and the animals. Suddenly, Sam spotted a knight on a horse. “Look at her!” she cried, running over.

The knight got down from her horse. “Would you like to be a knight too?” she asked Sam. “Here, hold my shield.” It felt heavy as Sam put it on her arm.

i, g and h are a team. They say igh.

igh

Action

Hold your shield with one arm and pat it with the other.

Say 'igh,
igh, igh'.

Write the Letters

Down the insect's body, tail and dot the head.
Around Gabi's head and wrap her scarf.
Down the chimney to the floor, up and over the new front door!

Play

Let's Sing!

(To the tune of 'The Grand Old Duke of York')

Oh, the brave knight on a horse,
Has helping hands to lend,
She rides on by
with an igh and an igh,
To look after all her friends.

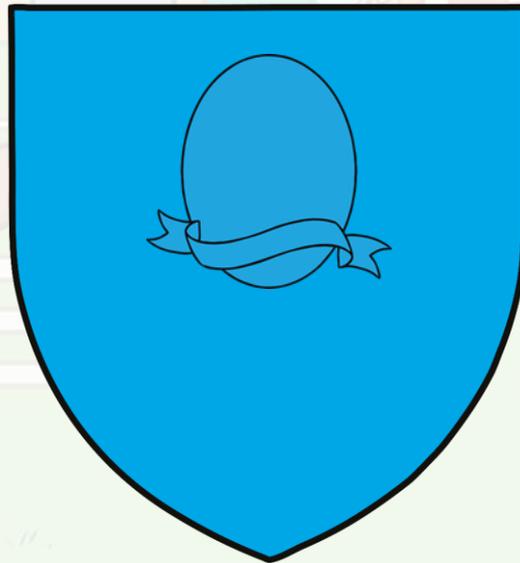

Play Song

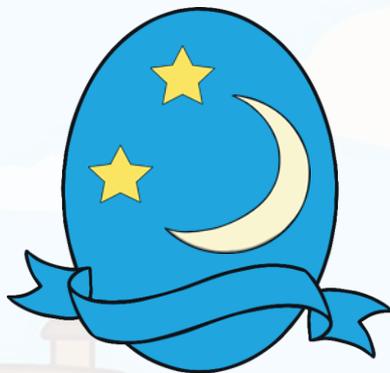

Muddled Shields

Kit and Sam have found a stall where they can make their own shields.
Can you help them put the right parts together to make the word to match the picture?

Go and fight the bad king.

Show Suggestion

“OK, I give up!” cried the king as they all fell on the grass, laughing.

“Kit and Sam, you are great knights. I promise to be good while you are here!”

Today, we have learnt...
