Kit and Sam were excited. They were going to the river to sail the boats they had each got for their birthday.

When they arrived at the river, Kit and Sam carefully put their boats down in the edge of the water and watched them sail slowly.

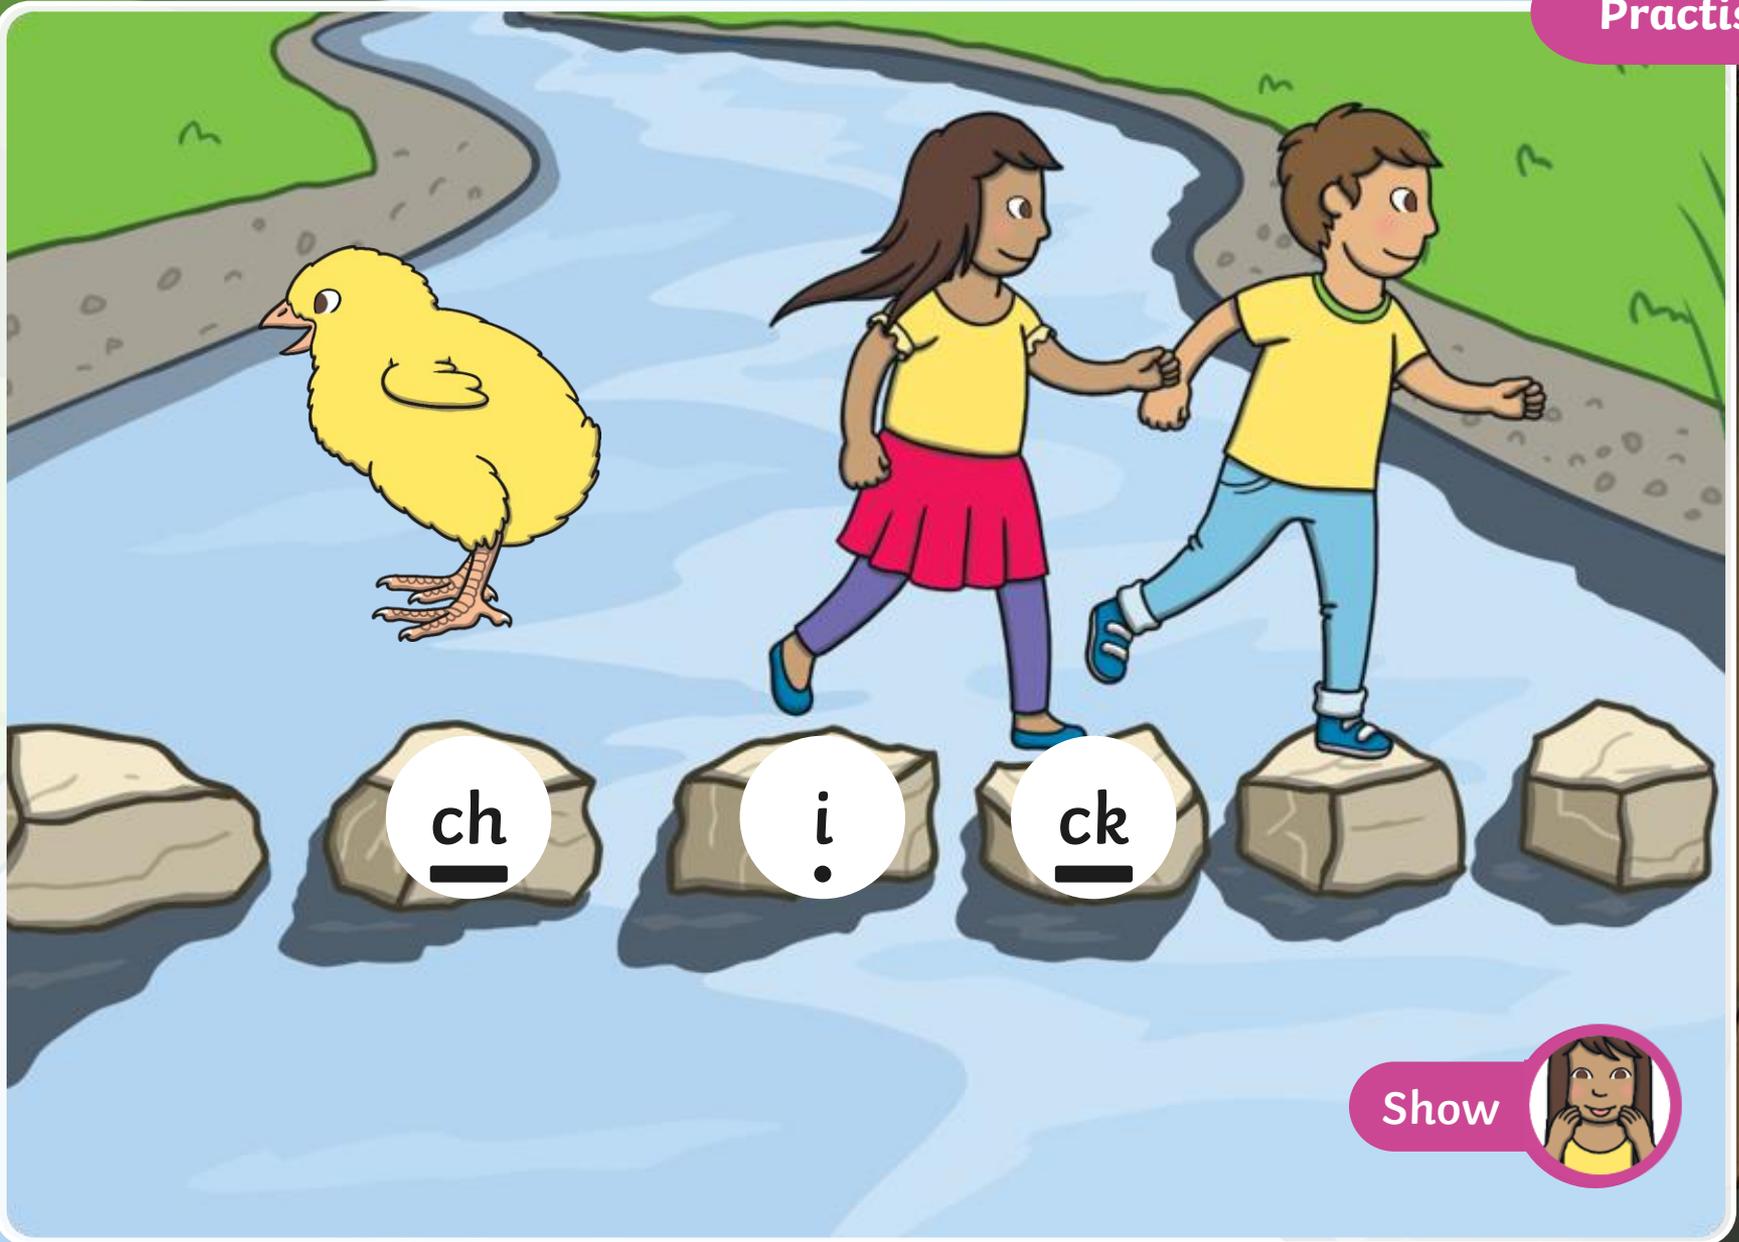

Kit and Sam had lots of fun watching their boats floating around on the water. Some ducks came to join them. Kit and Sam gave them some corn to eat.

Stepping Stones

Kit and Sam have found some stepping stones across the river. Can you say the sounds as they hop across to help them blend the words?

As Kit and Sam were playing, they realised that their boats had sailed out into the river and were sailing away. “Quick!” they shouted.

“Wait there,” said Mum, “I will get them.” Then, she waded out into the water.

“You caught a fish!” laughed Sam.
“At least I got the boats,” said Mum, as she got back out of the water.
“I know what you can have for tea, Mum...” said Kit, “fish and ships!” Everyone laughed.
