

Catch me the Moon, Daddy

Catch me the moon, Daddy,
Let it shine near me awhile.

Catch me the moon, Daddy,
I want to touch its smile.

The moon must shine
From high above;
That's where it needs to stay –
Among the stars,
To guide them home
When they return from play.

And as for you, my child,
With slender silver thread
The moon will weave
Sweet dreams, so you
May slumber in your bed.
