Jamina heard a sad and desperate cry from afar. It was a sound that tugged at her heart and she decided to follow it.

Jamina and the baby elephant went on a long journey to try and find the baby elephant's family.

Jamina went to collect honey from deep in the bush with her Grandfather. Her Grandfather told her there were not many elephants since the hunters arrived.

A mighty herd of elephants appeared and Jamina was able to reunite the baby with his family. Jamina decided she never wanted to be a hunter.

Jamina found a lonely, baby elephant trying to wake his mother. Jamina comforted the upset and scared baby elephant.

Jamina excitedly pretended to be a hunter and she ran around until she realised she had got lost and was alone.
