

Anglo-Saxon House

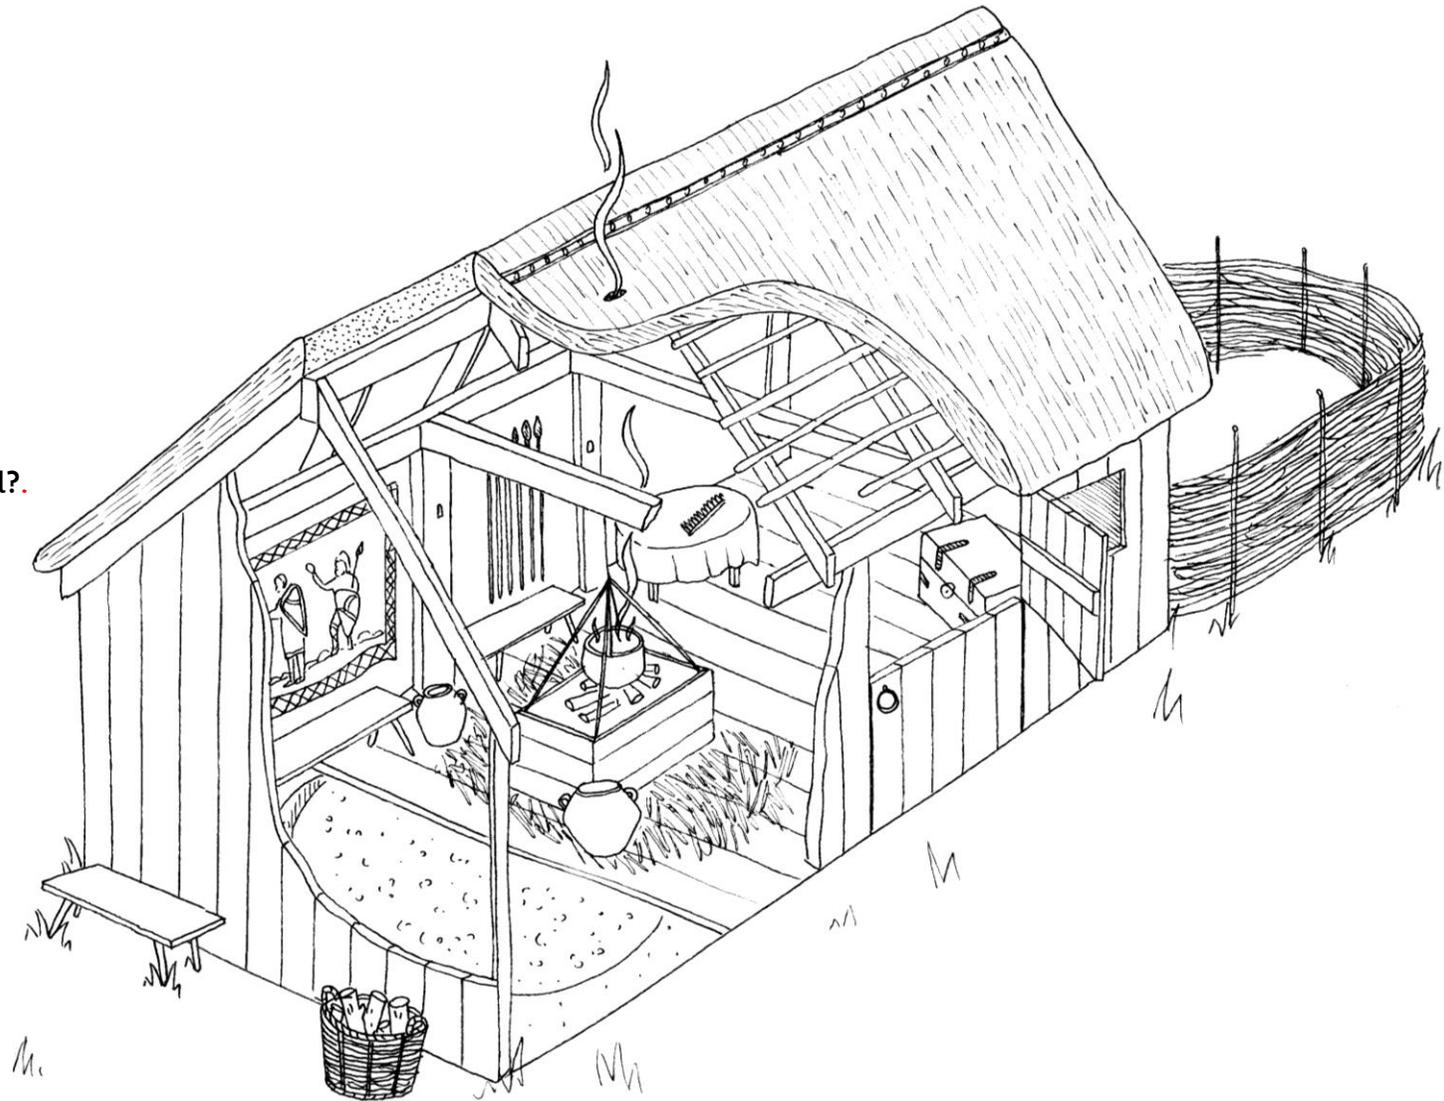

Draw sheep in the animal pen, shields on the wall pegs and another basket of firewood outside.

Now label all the parts of this Anglo-Saxon house.

Why did the windows and doors face south?

Why were tapestries hung on the wall?

What was the pit for?

Draw sheep in the animal pen, shields on the wall pegs and another basket of firewood outside.

Now label all the parts of this Anglo-Saxon house.

Why did the windows and doors face south? To warm the house up as it was the warmest wall (gets sun all day).

Why were tapestries hung on the wall? It was for decoration but the main reason was to keep the house warmer.

What was the pit for? It was for underfloor ventilation and it also kept the planks dry.

Anglo-Saxon House

